TAPOL REPORT

We have received information from H.C. Princen, chair of the Indonesian Institute for the Defence of Human Rights in Jakarta, that the following people were killed in East Timor by Indonesian troops of two battalions, 328 and 315:

1. Alexio Ximenes, 30, father of two children, killed on 23 March by Sargeant Mardi of Battalion 328, in Venilale.

2. Joachim Ximenes, 38, father of one, killed in early April by troops of the Satgas (Special Tasks unit) of Battalion 328.

3. Juliao Freitas, 54, killed on 14 May in Wailale by troops of Battalion 315.

4. Felix Ximenes, 55, killed on 11 June, from the village of Uma-Amano Uli, by troops of Battalion 315, in Venilale.

5. Gaspar de Sousa, 50, killed on 11 June while in a rice storehouse, in Vimalale, by troops of Battalion 315.

6 and 7. A man and a woman, names not yet available, killed between 10 and 20 June in Colegio-Futumata Fostiko, by troops of Battalion 328.

The figure 3 in the numbering of the battalions means they are from the 3rd Military Command, Siliwangi, in West Java. Battalion 328 is commanded by Major Prabowo, son-in-law of the President. Prabowo was originally from the paracommandos, Kopassus, but he has now shifted to Kujang, which is the strike force of Siliwangi.

3 July 1989

6 and 7 a man and a woman which names are not available yet, were killed between 15th and 20th of June in Colegio-Futumata Fostiko, by troops of Battalion 328. (CDPM)
